NewMexicoWomen.Org

2024 Year in Review

- We are the only fund focused on gender justice and healing in New Mexico.
- We are resourcing movements, organizations, and partners statewide through grants, research, training, and education.
- We are helping to ensure that women, girls, and gender nonconforming folks are valued and that their rights are protected.

In 2024, we redistributed more money to movements and organizations than ever before, granting over $1 million – a 26% increase from 2023.

"I feel grateful to be working with the staff of NewMexicoWomen.Org whose policies and practices require co-creative relationships with all partners."

Beyond funding, NMW.O engages in training, education, and research. Below are 2024 highlights:

- Convened a free, online Healthy Masculinities (HM) & Parenting series inspired by the HM Community of Practice, feedback from community members, and the HM Toolkit content.
- Continued to co-host the statewide community of practice for New Mexico funders to change the culture of philanthropy, create equitable access to resources, redistribute philanthropic wealth and respond to the needs of communities (grantee partners) most impacted by inequity.

- Launched a Gender Justice Advocacy grantmaking portfolio, funding organizations that are building power across grassroots movements.

NMW.O mobilizes resources to where they are most needed, as directed by our community partners, in support of women, girls, and gender nonconforming folks in New Mexico. You are an important part of this work.
